

1325

---

India : Mohammed Tughlak accession
at Delhi

1325-1351

Mohammed (India) reigned. Son of Tughlak Shah's.

Presents an unparalleled example of the monstrosities which may be achieved
by absolute power wielded by a man
wholly unbalanced, but yet
endowed with brilliant intellectual qualities and an unfettered
imagination: He chose to set up a new airport - DAVLA TAPAD in the Desain (India) & moved the inhabitants back to clear out in 3 days & transfer themselves to the new shade

He did it a few. He was successful
by his cousin FLORE SHAH.

1325

1912 Dates J-BK

Oldest known Chinese work
treating of ceramic art.

1325

1912 Dates J-BK

MEXICO CITY

Largest city in Latin North America.
Founded (about 1325) when the AZTECS
looking for a favorable site, saw an eagle perching on a cactus, devouring
a snake. Its name TENOCHTITLAN meant "Cactus on a stone". Changed to Mexico
in honor of their war god MEXITLI

C1325

Aztecs entered Mexico
and settled on islands in Lake TEXCOCO where in 1325
they founded the town
of TENOCHTITLÁN which
was to become their capital

1325

---

TENOCHTITLAN was founded
by wandering AZTECS

1325-1354

Journey of IBN BATTUTA

21 yr old IBN BATTUTA left TANGIERS for Mecca in June 1325. Over the next 29 yrs that empire carried him to Islamic outposts from Sumatra to MALI and returned him at least 4 times to the Sacred City. His journeys totaled 75,000 mi.

3 times the distance covered by his European predecessor, MAACO POLO
he visited TIM BUKTU, EGYPT, INDIA
CHINA (Nangshan: Beijing) Sumatra
the Indian Ocean; Bagdad; Jerusalem Medina: Mecca: around Cyprus sea.
around Black Sea.

1325

---

The Aztecs rose to power in Middle America from 1325

1325, (Fall)

South Dakota

High bluff above Missouri R.
Attackers enter a village behind a protective stockade that was not finished.

Bones found 15 ft below
a Crow Creek village

More than 500 men, women and children died.

Many, many were scalped

1325

---

AZTECS established powerful empire in Central Mexico.

AD 1325

The AZTECS settled on a marshy island in Lake TEXCOCO about AD 1325.

As their power grew, so did their capital TENOCHTITLAN, expanding across fill in the shallow lake.

(Teh noche - TEE - Tlahn = "place of the prickly pear cactus.")

during the next 194 years they conquered new lands - from the Gulf
to the Pacific and South to GUATEMALA.
From their new outposts the conquerors
started tribute of food, furs, precious metal, cloth, rare feathers and cacao beans to be used as money. On bark paper they kept records with their glyphs.